

Lesson 2 A Miraculous Pianist Worksheet ③

Class (     ) No.(     ) Name(                                     )

This section's can-do ( 4:できる 3:少しできる 2:あまりできない 1:できない )

1. 時間的順序を示すディスコースマーカーに注目しながら、英文を読み進め、その内容をとらえることができる。
( 4・3・2・1 )

2. 舘野泉さんが復帰を果たすまでに経験した心の変化について、説明することができる。
( 4・3・2・1 )

	英語	発音記号	品詞	意味
1	violinist
2	score
3	firmly
4	reopen(ed)
5	obsession
6	melody
7	inspire
8	passion
9	matter
10	whether
11	belief
		日本語
12	have difficulty in～
13	one～after another
14	whether A or B
15	more than ever

Lesson 2 A Miraculous Pianist Worksheet ④

⑩ About one and a half years has passed since the stroke.

⑪ Tateno still had difficulty walking.

⑫ One day, his son, who is a violinist, visited Tateno and left a piano score for him without saying anything.

⑬ Tateno did not know the music, but it was also for the left hand.

⑭ When he saw the score, something in him changed.

⑮ He found his firmly closed heart reopened.

⑯ His obsession that the piano must be played with both hands disappeared.

⑰ Playing the melody, Tateno began to think, "I can still play the piano!"

⑱ He soon asked musicians around the world to compose new works for the left hand.

⑲ Inspired by Tateno's passion, many of them created one work after another.

⑳ Tateno now believes it does not matter whether he can use two hands or one hand.

㉑ Music is music.

㉒ With this belief, he has returned to performing on stage.

㉓ Now he feels the joy of playing music more than ever.

Comprehension

① (            )      ② (            )      ③ (            )      ④ (            )

T or F questions

1. When Tateno was entering the final moments of his performance, he noticed his left hand slowing down. ( ) _____
2. Thanks to his rehabilitation, Tateno's right hand began to respond. ( ) _____
3. Tateno thought that the piano must be played with both hands. ( ) _____
4. One day Tateno's son visited him and asked him to play the piano again. ( ) _____
5. Now Tateno thinks it is all right to play the piano with one hand. ( ) _____
6. After overcoming his obsession, Tateno now enjoys playing the piano and giving concerts. ( ) _____

Questions

1. What hit the 65-year-old pianist?
2. What did the doctor tell Tateno?
3. When Tateno played the melody of the score his son gave him, what did he begin to think?
4. Did many musicians compose new works for Tateno?
5. What does he feel now?

Level 1

Please fill in the blanks and retell the story.

In 2002, a pianist Tateno Izumi was hit by a ( ). The right side of his body became ( ). There was no hope of a full recovery. His musician friends ( ) playing the piano with his ( ) hand, but he refused.

Check your partner's retelling.

Later, Tateno's son visited him with a piano score for the left hand. When he saw it, his obsession to play the piano with both hands disappeared. He began to play with his left hand. Many musicians composed new works for the left hand. Now he feels the joy of playing music more than ever.

Level 2

Please fill in the blanks and retell the story.

In 2002, a pianist Tateno Izumi was _____. The right side of his body _____. There was no _____. His musician friends _____ with his left hand, but he refused.

Check your partner's retelling.

Later, Tateno's son visited him with a piano score for the left hand. When he saw it, his obsession to play the piano with both hands disappeared. He began to play with his left hand. Many musicians composed new works for the left hand. Now he feels the joy of playing music more than ever.

Level 3

Please retell the story.

In 2002, a pianist Tateno Izumi was hit by a stroke. _____
 _____
 _____

Check your partner's retelling.

Later, Tateno's son visited him with a piano score for the left hand.
 When he saw it, his obsession to play the piano with both hands disappeared.
 He began to play with his left hand. Many musicians composed new works for the left hand.
 Now he feels  the joy of playing music more than ever.

Lesson 2 A Miraculous Pianist Worksheet ⑥ B

Level 1

Check your partner's retelling.

In 2002, a pianist Tateno Izumi was hit by a stroke. The right side of his body became paralyzed. There was no hope of a full recovery. His musician friends suggested playing the piano with his left hand, but he refused.

Please fill in the blanks and retell the story.

Later, Tateno's ( ) visited him with a piano score for the left hand. When he saw it, his ( ) to play the piano with both hands disappeared. He began to play with his left hand. Many musicians ( ) new works for the left hand. Now he feels the ( ) of playing music more than ever.

Level 2

Check your partner's retelling.

In 2002, a pianist Tateno Izumi was hit by a stroke. The right side of his body became paralyzed. There was no hope of a full recovery. His musician friends suggested playing the piano with his left hand, but he refused.

Please fill in the blanks and retell the story.

Later, _____ with a piano score for the left hand. When he saw it, _____ with both hands disappeared. He began to play with his left hand. Many musicians _____. Now he feels _____ more than ever.

Level 3

Check your partner's retelling.

In 2002, a pianist Tateno Izumi was hit by a stroke.

- The right side of his body became paralyzed.
- There was no hope of a full recovery.
- His musician friends suggested playing the piano with his left hand, but he refused.

Please retell the story.

Later, Tateno's son visited him with a piano score for the left hand. _____
_____
_____